Re: WCSO Story Tip with Similarities to Samantha Robinson Tort Claim

Dear Mr. Simonelli,

A recent story on Detective Samantha Robinson's $30 million tort claim against the Whatcom County Sheriff's Office (WCSO) caught my attention. I'm a Whatcom County resident who has spent 5 years on the other side of WCSO, as a citizen rather than as an employee. I believe the patterns and experiences – and possibly the perpetrators – are related, and I have copious evidence (website [sample below], photos, videos, documents, etc.) to support my experiences.

Background: I'm 72, retired after 45 years in the regular workforce (including 11 years in Whatcom County HR), and now work as a proofreader for court reporters. I bought a home in Glenhaven Lakes Community (GLC) in 2020, which is midway between Mount Vernon and Bellingham. I'm autistic and live alone.

What happened:

• In February 2021 an ex-con neighbor, with a long criminal record in Skagit and Whatcom counties, began over a 5-year 24/7 campaign against me of theft, malicious trespassing, assault, threats and attempts to kill, after I paid a teenage friend of his $100 for 1 hour of moving dirt and then asked him and his friends to stop trespassing on my land. (The ex-con and the teenager, his mother and their friends also joined in on his crimes over the 5 years, or provided false alibis.) Police reports on the ex-con from Sedro-Woolley, Burlington, and Whatcom County document his threats to kill and other crimes, including a 10-year restraining order obtained by one ex-wife (see 1996-2026 QUOTES below). I allege he tried to kill me in August 2021 and again in April 2022, for which I have video and police report proof. The daily harassment and trespassing continue today. And WCSO still refuses to investigate or do stakeouts, telling me NOT to call 911 if I hear the criminals in the early morning hours unless I can prove he was on my property when I called.

• WCSO did not arrest him for any of the 2021-2026 crimes (they only arrest him if he threatens to kill a man, never women), for which I have written reports and/or body-cam footage that differs from what's in the written reports, including omitted confessions and my side of the story. After the April 2022 incident in which the ex-con drove onto his property and then drove straight at me on a road I own, I was the one arrested. (I followed Washington's self-defense laws to the letter.) I gave WCSO video of the encounter and was told it was lost, even though I watched the deputy electronically send it. (I still have the video on my website.)

• Also on my website are comparisons of deputies' body-cam footage with their written reports, word for word. In one egregious case the neighbor made a confession to a deputy that does not appear in the report. Two-hour interviews by detectives completely omit my account.

• At my booking for defending myself against the ex-con, there were far more officers than I saw at any other booking during my months in the jail, including ones I had previously filed corruption complaints against, which are also on my website. I allege they laughed, pointed, and took photos of me on personal phones and sent them to others during the booking process. Sheriff Elfo also organized group Jail tours (which are normally rare) to parade me in front of the ex-con and my neighbors who were aiding and abetting his crimes and the HR staff I worked with at the county.

• I have written repeatedly to Sheriff Tanksley and the Office of Professional Standards about the issues over the last 5 years. I only recently received one response from WCSO offering to meet, to which I responded I'd have my attorney contact them. Instead of waiting for that, today one of the deputies I'd filed a corruption complaint against in 2022 and who was among the deputies laughing and pointing at me and taking pictures on her personal cell phone while I was being booked, another deputy, and a social worker woke me up (I work nights), parked two large cruisers in the road, and said they were there to discuss my concerns (my heart nearly stopped when I looked out and saw their cars, and I began shaking so hard when I saw her and throughout their time there, I could barely stand; she refused to move out of my sight and even started talking to me at the end, after I'd asked her not to talk to me).

Why it may be a story: In your article, Sheriff Tanksley said he addresses complaints "with utmost seriousness," and the County Executive said the administration was unaware of the allegations until the tort claim arrived. My experience suggests that outside complainants may be getting the same silence. There is also a parallel in the way images of a person were allegedly passed around among officers for amusement. And the body-cam-versus-written-report comparison is something a reader can check for themselves. And something that should concern every Whatcom County taxpayer.

I'm happy to turn my website back on if you'd like to see the evidence it contains (see sample above).

And I'm glad to talk by phone or email, to share everything, including anything that could help Ms. Robinson, and to answer any questions about my own experiences, which includes a recent WCSO ambush that triggered a massive autistic meltdown and left me incapacitated for days.

You can reach me at (360) 922-4503 or jenniferdubrow@gmail.com.

Thank you for your time and for your incisive reporting on behalf of justice and accountability.

Sincerely,

1996-2026 REUBEN SANCHEZ THREATS TO KILL, INTIMIDATION, NO-CONTACT ORDER VIOLATIONS, SLASHING TIRES, BRANDISHING WEAPONS

BRANDY LEE MONTNEY (ex-wife) to JENNIFER DUBROW APPEAL FOR HELP IN 2021

I do not want any part of anything that has to do with REUBEN SANCHEZ. It took long enough and too much work, including a 10-year restraining order, to get him out of my life.

REUBEN SANCHEZ CONFESSION to WCSO DEPUTY THOMPSON (who did not include it in written report)

Somebody else passed that law [I violated], and I wasn't there when they passed it, so it doesn't apply to me.

SWPD OFFICER P. EATON re REUBEN SANCHEZ

I received information REUBEN SANCHEZ has been continually violating the no-contact order.

REUBEN SANCHEZ to BRANDY LEE MONTNEY (ex-wife)

When we were sitting in that class, do you remember watching me smile? I was laughing to see the fear in that fucking house [where BRANDY and her two young children live]. Everybody in that fucking house, including you, too, were fucking scared. Well, you fucking better be, BRANDY, because the end is coming.

I guarantee that everything you own there is going to have something wrong with it.

You know what, if you don't give me this, I will make sure everything goes bad for you.

You know what, in all my rage, I kind of forgot you have to go to work.

All right, well I guess I'm gonna go into your workplace tonight. I'll be there when you get there. Don't fucking think I won't be there, and I'll fucking find out myself. You just fucking be ready.

BRANDY LEE MONTNEY (ex-wife) to SWPD OFFICERS

BRANDY said that Halloween night, she had a longtime friend spend the night. The next morning she heard someone banging on her front door and answered it and it was REUBEN SANCHEZ.

BRANDY stated that as REUBEN SANCHEZ started to leave she had observed he had a hammer in one of his hands. BRANDY said that REUBEN SANCHEZ came into the house and found her friend in BRANDY's bed and threatened him with the hammer.

BRANDY said that she is very scared of REUBEN SANCHEZ and that he has already slashed her tires once before. While telling us this, her eyes welled up with water and she almost started crying. She appeared to be terrified of REUBEN SANCHEZ.

She stated REUBEN SANCHEZ went out the front door, and she did not see his vehicle outside so she believed he had walked there from some other location. She stated after that she continued receiving phone calls from him and text messages stating that she was a cunt, bitch, and a whore. She had received over 100 messages on one of the days, so she changed her cell phone number.

She then stated he was now calling her at work. She appeared visibly upset about the situation and stated to officers that she was afraid he would kill her or her kids at least two different times.

She stated, during their marriage, she did not know how REUBEN SANCHEZ would react to different situations. She stated at times he appeared almost crazy.

When the SWPD officer returned on Saturday, he had received an e-mail stating BRANDY had called saying her tires had been slashed again and that she couldn't make it in to fill out her statement.

ADAM DARIENZO (friend of ex-wife) to SWPD OFFICER

ADAM advises he answered calls [from REUBEN SANCHEZ] a few of the times to try and reason with him and explain he had the wrong idea. He stated he could not get a word in because REUBEN SANCHEZ kept yelling and screaming and threatening him and then would hang up and then call back, which went on and on.

REUBEN SANCHEZ then left several messages telling him to change his phone number, or he would continue calling and harassing him for the rest of his life. REUBEN SANCHEZ also stated ADAM was one of three people he was bugging and that he wouldn't stop. ADAM stated he was calling him names and saying, "If I ever saw him, I should run and hide."

MICHELE FAE ANDERSON (friend of ex-wife) to SWPD OFFICER

MICHELE FAE ANDERSON states one of the bartenders at her business was receiving numerous calls with immediate hang-ups. She told the bartender she would answer it. When she answered the next call, REUBEN SANCHEZ demanded to speak with BRANDY, or he would come down to the business and cause a scene she would not like. He then hung up and called back 6 or 7 more times, like he was using redial.

Each time he continued making threats, telling her to be careful or she'd end up with all her tires slashed. He also threatened to burn all of BRANDY's things and slash her tires.

MARNA McLATCHY (ex-wife) to SWPD OFFICER

REUBEN SANCHEZ grabbed me by the wrists, used his body to push me out of our shared residence, and locked the door.

I am very fearful of REUBEN SANCHEZ.

SWPD OFFICER WILLIAM STORIE re REUBEN SANCHEZ

I've had many problems with REUBEN SANCHEZ in the past, so I asked OFFICER P. EATON to do the interview with him.

REUBEN SANCHEZ TEXTS to ROBIN CULLY in BURLINGTON PD REPORT

Bad things happen to bad people like you, puta. I fucking hate you right now. Hate, hate, hate.

I'm going to beat the living shit out of you. If you think not to pay me, you are dead, dead, dead.

You better come up with some money fast and soon because I'll come over and beat you down in front of your family.

I will hunt you down like an animal and beat you within an inch of your life.

BURLINGTON PD REPORT re REUBEN SANCHEZ HARASSMENT THREATS TO KILL ROBIN CULLY

Officers asked ROBIN CULLY if he was afraid REUBEN would follow through on his threats to kill him, and he said "yes." ROBIN was afraid he would do so and officers could see his hands shaking. Officers asked ROBIN if he was shaking from the fear. ROBIN said he has a tremor in his hands, but you can't see it. ROBIN said "If you can see it, it's from the threats." ROBIN also said REUBEN is a big guy. Officers established probable cause to arrest REUBEN for harassment threats to kill.

SEPTEMBER 23, 2021 -- AHPO/ASPO HEARING

ATTORNEY ADAM KARP and APOLLO SCOTT

Q. Did you tell him [Reuben Sanchez] to harass, trespass or vandalize my client's property in any way?

A. No.

Q. Did you tell anyone else to do so?

A. No.

Q. Did Reuben Sanchez volunteer to get back at Ms. Dubrow or settle a score or anything on your behalf?

A. All I know that he ever said is he would, like, jokingly say that he was going to do something, and I would tell him no because that was, no, no, you just (inaudible).

Q. What did he joke about exactly?

A. Ah, like cutting down a tree going to her house, or something like that.

Re: Unauthorized Right-of-Way Damage, Drainage Disruption, and Encroachment Complaint

Dear Mr. Page:

I am filing this formal complaint regarding intentional, significant, daily damage to my physical and mental health and the community right-of-way (ROW) at 705 Summerset Way (Glenhaven Lakes Div No 10 Lot 2 Blk 3) when the safety barriers currently in place are removed.

Reuben Sanchez, et al., who live at 732 West Road and vicinity have been putting long, deep trenches in the dirt at the top and bottom perimeters of my rights-of-way on Summerset Way and West Road. This activity violates community standards regarding community behavior and property maintenance, violates criminal trespassing laws, and creates a severe long-term risk of road degradation and drainage failure. These privately owned roads aren't in great shape now, so they're just getting worse.

In your September 18, 2026 letter, you state, related to the Division 10 and 11 rights-of-way:

> Because the paved asphalt portion of these roads [in Divisions 10 and 11] are narrower than 60 feet, there is an unpaved shoulder strip on either side of the pavement. This unpaved shoulder area is still part of the road right-of-way, and not part of your private lot. As such, Glenroads has the right and responsibility to maintain, control, and regulate this shoulder area.
> To help visualize this, I have included an aerial map of your property from the Whatcom County Tax Parcel Viewer as Attachment C. Your private property lines are highlighted in blue. As shown on the map, your private lot boundary ends at the blue line and does not extend to the paved road. The area between the paved road and your property boundary is part of the road right-of-way, which is regulated and maintained by Glenroads.

Because the rights-of-way are Glenroads community property, with the right and responsibility to maintain, control, and regulate them, I am submitting this Unauthorized Right-of-Way Damage, Drainage Disruption, and Encroachment Complaint and respectfully request you take immediate enforcement action, including:

1) Notifying Division 10 and 11 road owners to stop engaging in criminal conduct, such as:
    a. intentionally putting long, deep, unmitigated tire tracks and trenches in the unpaved shoulders and rights-of-way, which are:
        i. structurally compromising the edge of the roadway
        ii. altering the flow of stormwater, which pools in the deep trenches, creates mud hazards, and threatens to erode the foundation of my driveway and property
        iii. eyesores and tripping hazards
        iv. part of a general, ongoing campaign of harassment, bullying, malicious trespassing, intimidation, restraining order violations, threats and attempts to kill that's gone on for over 5 years now, since I paid Apollo Scott $100/hour in February 2021 to move dirt on my property (see attached quotes of Reuben Sanchez's many threats), aided and abetted by a corrupt sheriff and a few deputies who failed to file honest written reports or arrest when merited

b. ripping down no-trespassing signs
c. preventing others from accessing roads they own (see attached 2021 video of Reuben Sanchez yelling, "It's my road, dude" before driving onto his property and then driving straight at me; he also chased me down the same road at night at breakneck speed in 2021, with no warning, and didn't stop until I started screaming at the top of my lungs)

2) Paying for two trail cameras and video cards for my property (I've spent a small fortune on a high-tech, high-class security system, but the cameras don't cover those two perimeter areas that Glenroads maintains, controls, and regulates). I have many photos of the damage and attached is a video from 2021 showing Reuben Sanchez trespassing on and stealing wood from my property. John Hirsch was aware of this at the time and could have addressed it with Mr. Sanchez in real time, whose behavior now is the same, using large, heavy trucks and utility vans to put long, deep trenches in the dirt and ripping down my no-trespassing signs.

3) Requiring the criminals to fill and level/repair rights-of-way back to proper grading so community drainage and aesthetics are restored and there is incentive to stop the behavior.

Since there should be full accountability for the dues we pay to repair, maintain, and resurface these roads, I also request complete information from Glenroads about Division 10 and 11 dues arrears, including:

1) how many members were in dues arrears since 1965
2) how many members are currently in dues arrears and how much is outstanding (it should be a line item on the annual statement)
3) how much has been spent in total to recoup dues arrears

I also request information on whether the many heavy delivery vans/trucks and construction equipment traveling daily in Division 10 and 11 comply with the weight limits for our roads and rights-of-way.

I've stood alone for long enough now. I've never asked any of you for help. And not a single one of you has stepped forward to help me try to stop these insane psychopaths, who have preyed on me 24/7 for over 5 years.

My whole life, I've always said I just want to be left alone. And I've never done anything bad to any of you, which makes it all the more ironic that all this started after I paid Apollo Scott $100/hour to move some dirt. No good deed, huh?!

I'm very, very tired of defending myself against them, only to have you come up with ever more inventive and discriminatory ways to prevent me from doing so. Instead of repeatedly stopping me from protecting myself, why don't you think of some solutions to make them stop? Or do they simply feed your own hatreds, prejudices, and pettiness?

Why don't you extend the word "community" to all your neighbors, not just the criminal ones?

If Reuben Sanchez was doing any of this to any of you and your families, someone would put a stop to it. But since they're preying on an elderly autistic woman who lives alone, it's okay to allow their vicious 24/7 predations. For 5 years now, I've lived in a house under 24/7 siege, never knowing what he and his kind are planning next. (You know a little about that, don't you, Ms. Crouter?)

10/11/2026 Email Sent to Whatcom County Council, Sheriff, Executive, and Glenhaven Lakes Community

Dear Sheriff Tanksley:

Because Glenroads refuses to adhere to its fiduciary duties to fairly and equally control, regulate, and/or maintain the right-of-way on Division 10 and 11 roads, Reuben Sanchez continues his nightly harassment (ripping down my no-trespassing sign) while trespassing on my property's right-of-way at 705 Summerset Way. (WCSO officially trespassed him from my property in 2021. And it's criminal trespass in the second degree, punishable by up to 90 days in jail and a $1,000 fine, if you knowingly enter or remain unlawfully on the right-of-way, which Sanchez is doing every night. As if Glenroads cares.)

I've reported these crimes to WCSO on 10/7, 10/8, and 10/9. (As I said in an earlier email, I stopped reporting his crimes when Bill Elfo and his corrupt deputies were letting him get away with anything.)

Deputy Latimer told me on 10/9 NOT to call 911 if I hear Sanchez on my property at night, unless I'm positive he's still on the property when I call.

This is very strange advice for law enforcement to be giving taxpayers/victims. Is this the same advice you give people experiencing home invasions, burglaries, etc.? Surely, I have the same right to call 911 at 4 a.m., when I hear him outside going at the sign, as I do at 2 p.m. when I wake up and see he's been at the sign again.

Who are you kidding? This is just another excuse not to respond to his 24/7 predations.

Deputy Latimer also indicated my daily 911 reports of harassment and trespassing by Reuben Sanchez are not being recorded by WCSO.

I am voice-memo recording these reports and will soon be making public record requests for them all to ensure they're actually being recorded and are done so honestly, as your deputies have failed to do in the past.

Today I called 911 to report continued harassment by Reuben Sanchez. He leaf-blowed over 20 blocks in my immediate vicinity (a practice he only started last year when he realized he could harass me by duplicitously pretending to care about his neighbors [leaf fall is minimal right now, mostly just pine needles, and there's no legitimately pressing reason for leaf-blowing so far out of his own neighborhood]).

He spent an extra long time in front of my house (he knows I'm autistic and hypersensitive to noise), but mine was the ONLY property he did NOT leaf-blow, as proof he's just doing it to harass me and show you you're all impotent to stop him.

Attached are 2 videos showing (1) he didn't know I was videoing when he walked past my property without leaf-blowing it (see attached photos) and (2) when he realized I was videoing, he added to his bottomless bag of harassment by flipping me the bird as he walked past. According to legal experts, this is also harassment.

Also attached are some of his quotes from police reports over the last 30 years, harassing and threatening to kill ex-wives, their children, and their friends.

This is what Skagit and Whatcom counties have allowed and encouraged, over and over and over again, only arresting him if he harasses and threatens to kill men, never women.

Nice. Way to uphold your dignity and integrity and demonstrate your manly courage and abilities to protect and serve. He runs circles around you, laughing all the way. And you all let him, to the point I can't tell if you're afraid of him or in collusion with him.

Sincerely,
Jennifer Dubrow

Oh, I'm also sending this email to Carney, Badley, Spellman.

You may recognize that name, Sheriff Tanksley. Do you and yours have a single ethical, courageous cell in your body? Do any of the GLC board members or community members who hide behind the mob to vent your pettiness, hatred, and injustice? How can you call yourselves human?

10/13/2026 Email Sent to Senator Patty Murray and Governor Bob Ferguson
(cc'd to Whatcom County Council, Sheriff, Executive, Glenhaven Lakes Community, and Glenroads)

Dear Senator Murray:

First of all, I'd like to thank you for your consistent integrity, values, and hard work. You're one of the few elected officials I trust implicitly.

I am writing to ask if you can help me work with the governor on repeated civil rights violations by the Whatcom County Sheriff Office, beginning with ex-Sheriff Bill Elfo and now tag-teamed by Sheriff Donnell "Tank" Tanksley and the corrupt deputies he inherited from Elfo.

After 45 years in the regular workforce, I retired and in June 2020 bought a house in Glenhaven Lake Community (GLC), an HOA with over 1000 households, halfway between Bellingham and Mount Vernon.

In February 2021 I paid a local teenager $100/hour to move dirt on my land. After he and his many friends refused to stop 24/7 trespassing on my land (because they're Trump acolytes, and I criticized Trump), I had to involve WCSO. The deputy assigned to GLC was good friends with the teenager's family and would do nothing to stop them or the ex-con that he, his friends, his mother, and other community members unleashed on me. (I'm high-functioning autistic, so live alone and have no friends or family to intercede on my behalf.)

The ex-con has a LONG history in Washington of engaging in and pleading guilty to fraud, theft, malicious trespassing, assault, threats and attempts to kill wives/children/others (see QUOTES from police reports at end of form), 10-year restraining order violations, and has served time in Skagit County for drug manufacturing, delivery, and possession. He still deals drugs in GLC. And he still harasses me and trespasses on my property every day. (WCSO recently told me not to bother calling them if I heard him on my property in the early morning, unless I could prove he was still on the property when I called.)

In August 2021 the ex-con tried to kill me; police refused to arrest him. (This may be related to multiple complaints I made to Sheriff Bill Elfo about falsified and deceptive Whatcom County crime statistics that don't allow house-hunting taxpayers to accurately weigh felony crime levels in different neighborhoods.) In April 2022 the ex-con tried to kill me again with a loaded utility van. The police promptly lost my video of this event and arrested me instead of him, even though I adhered to Washington's self-defense laws, which are:

(1) a reasonable belief of imminent danger (he had already tried to kill me and had repeatedly threatened to kill other women/their children/others (see QUOTES from police reports at end of form), and he pulled onto his property in a large, loaded utility van, then veered onto a public road I own to drive straight at me, not stopping until I pulled a handgun and pointed it at his grille, a few feet in front of me); (2) the use of reasonable, necessary, and proportional force (I trained for months with Navy Seals and other self-defense experts to safely and responsibly use a legal handgun and didn't fire it); and (3) the lack of a duty to retreat if in a place lawfully permitted to be (I was on a daily walk on a public road I own, on the opposite side of the road from his property).

Facing the rest of my life in prison for simply defending myself, I began starving myself to death, losing 25 pounds in 25 days, which resulted in my public defender involuntarily committing me to Washington State Hospital (WSH) in August 2022, so he wouldn't lose his $3,000 fee for my case if I died. After I was formally diagnosed as high-functioning autistic, instead of "the crazy lady" the people in the HOA called me, I was released in January 2024. The ex-con and his friends and the HOA members, including the board members, promptly resumed engaging in and supporting and encouraging the 24/7 harassment and trespassing.

To date, Sheriff Tanksley has failed to acknowledge or respond to a single email from me. And his Office of Professional Standards has failed to respond to or acknowledge receipt of my complaints or complaint updates. (My initial complaint to Sheriff Tanksley was that ex-sheriff Bill Elfo violated my civil rights with (1) false arrest and then (2) compounded that violation by parading me in the Bellingham Jail in regular tours for the ex-con and the HOA people who had been supporting him.)

Given the unrelenting radio silence from Sheriff Tanksley and his misnamed Office of Professional Standards, there is no mechanism, other than the governor, for holding WCSO accountable for corruption, civil rights, or other violations against the people they're supposed to serve and protect.

Many thanks,
Jennifer Dubrow

Last, Senator Murray, here's the last email I sent to Sheriff Tanksley and the HOA (which also didn't merit a response from anyone):

People say all the time, "I don't understand how people could have tolerated slavery. How could they have made peace with that? How could people have gone to a lynching and participated in that? How did people make sense of the segregation, this white- and colored-only drinking...that's so crazy. If I was living at that time, I would never have tolerated anything like that." And the truth is, we are living at this time, and we are tolerating it.
13TH, Netflix

So how do you tolerate all the male violence and killing by cowardly men against women that never stops? You are living in this time, and you are tolerating it. What's worse, you're encouraging and supporting and participating in it. What does that say about you?

Mobbing and bullying come naturally to humans because they're too cowardly to stand alone and fight their own battles.
JENNIFER DUBROW

And male violence against women, condoned and supported by men across all communities and all races, including law enforcement, is often to compensate for perceived failures in masculine status hierarchies and is often about sexual inadequacy, anxiety about masculinity, and a need to provoke a reaction that affirms their power when they feel powerless, particularly in relation to other men. The "target" [women] is almost incidental to that internal dynamic.

That male solidarity in shielding men from accountability for violence against women – while those same men would never tolerate being victimized themselves – reveals the perverse hierarchy clearly.

Women are effectively being used as a "safe" target to establish masculine credentials and compensate for male inadequacies, without the risk of retaliation and harm from within the male hierarchy.
CLAUDE

I had to squeeze past them [rapists] during breaks in the proceedings. I heard them talking, not even bothering to lower their voices, naturally buoyed by male camaraderie. I saw them high-fiving each other, going to the café across the street at lunchtime, chatting at the bar, buying rounds of beer, laughing. They bonded with each other simply because they were convinced they had done nothing wrong. And yet they didn't resemble one another. But they did share one thing: a sense of entitlement. An attitude of complete indifference to whatever anyone said or thought, because power had always been on their side. (Dominique Pelicot enjoyed initiating other men into his hobby; he offered them sedatives and instructions so they might drug, rape and pass around their own wives. After the arrests, the police alerted the men's partners that they might have been victimized like Gisele Pelicot, and offered to test their hair for the presence of the drugs. Every woman refused.)

Shame must change sides.
GISELE PELICOT

Reuben Sanchez, et al., are again ripping down my no-trespassing sign and trespassing (see attached photos) on the right-of-way in the early morning hours.

I'm NOT going to report these via 911 or talk with your corrupt deputies about these incidents anymore, since they:
-- don't return my 911 calls
-- lie or omit info in the reports
-- refuse to do anything about the incidents, even though they're committing the crimes EVERY SINGLE DAY (this mirrors the time they threw over 900 roofing nails on my driveway over EIGHT CONSECUTIVE DAYS and WCSO refused to do stakeouts – or take any action at all – to stop the injuries to wildlife and domestic animals or punctured tires)
-- tell me NOT to call 911 when I hear him going at the sign unless I can prove he was on my property when I called 911

For WCSO, to keep you company in the hours you're now choosing to spend in the Glenhaven Lakes Community office, rather than on stakeouts or talking to the criminals to stop the daily crimes:

People say all the time, "I don't understand how people could have tolerated slavery. How could they have made peace with that? How could people have gone to a lynching and participated in that? How did people make sense of the segregation, this white- and colored-only drinking...that's so crazy. If I was living at that time, I would never have tolerated anything like that." And the truth is, we are living at this time, and we are tolerating it.
13TH, Netflix

So how do you tolerate all the male violence and killing by cowardly men against women that never stops? You are living in this time, and you are tolerating it. What's worse, you're encouraging and supporting and participating in it. What does that say about you?

Mobbing and bullying come naturally to humans because they're too cowardly to stand alone and fight their own battles.
JENNIFER DUBROW

And male violence against women, condoned and supported by men across all communities and all races, including law enforcement, is often to compensate for perceived failures in masculine status hierarchies and is often about sexual inadequacy, anxiety about masculinity, and a need to provoke a reaction that affirms their power when they feel powerless, particularly in relation to other men. The "target" [women] is almost incidental to that internal dynamic.

That male solidarity in shielding men from accountability for violence against women – while those same men would never tolerate being victimized themselves – reveals the perverse hierarchy clearly.

Women are effectively being used as a "safe" target to establish masculine credentials and compensate for male inadequacies, without the risk of retaliation and harm from within the male hierarchy.
CLAUDE

The deliberate falsehood and the outright lie have been used as legitimate means to achieve political ends since the beginning of recorded history.

The banality of evil. The despair of not being heard. The futility of tragedy that finds no listener that can bring comfort, assurance, and intervention.
HANNAH ARENDT

Young Christian's Father: Life is a series of choices, none of which are new. The oldest is choosing to be a victim. Or choosing not to. Second oldest: loyalty. Family first, good times or bad (as the boys who broke Christian's glasses with a schoolyard sucker punch show up).

Young Christian: They're only glasses.

Young Christian's Father: You think if you don't fight back then maybe they'll like you, stop picking on you, and calling you a freak? Well, here's what it is. They don't like you; they don't dislike you. They're afraid of you. You're different. Sooner or later, different scares people. Victim or not? Make a decision.

It's very hard for me to interpret why people do what they do.

10/21/2026 Email Sent to Whatcom County Council, Sheriff, Executive, and Glenhaven Lakes Community

Dear Sheriff Tanksley and Executive Sidhu Singh:

When Detective Samantha Robinson first came forward with her long-ignored reports of sexual harassment and discrimination, going back years, Sheriff Tanksley said he addresses complaints "with utmost seriousness," and the County Executive said the administration was unaware of the allegations until the tort claim arrived. Apparently, utmost seriousness is now out of stock, but you still have a nasty case of blindness to crimes within your organization and contempt for justice and accountability.

What's happened to me for over 5 years now and what happened yesterday confirmed it.

On October 14, WCSO emailed me this cold, bureaucratic, anonymous message:

SheriffComplaint Wed, Oct 14, 4:06 PM (7 days ago)

to me

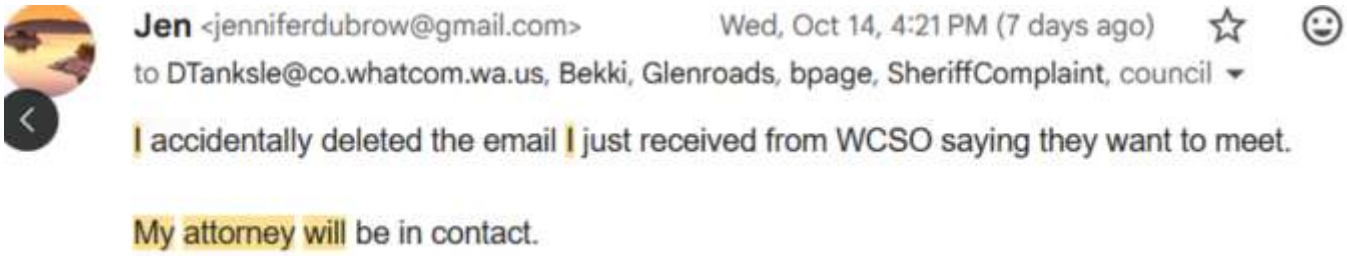

Jennifer,

Sheriff's representatives would be happy to meet with you and discuss your concerns. What is a good time for someone to meet with you? As always if there is an ongoing incident, please call 911 or the non-emergency line at 360 676 6911 to make a report to a deputy.

Thank You,

Sheriff Complaints

On October 14, I responded with this:

Jen <jenniferdubrow@gmail.com> Wed, Oct 14, 4:21 PM (7 days ago)

to DTanksle@co.whatcom.wa.us, Bekki, Glenroads, bpage, SheriffComplaint, council

I accidentally deleted the email I just received from WCSO saying they want to meet.

My attorney will be in contact.

On October 20, Deputies Klix and Mellema decided my wishes and rights are meaningless and woke me up (I work nights proofreading for court reporters) by setting off my six security camera alarms and loudly pounding on my door, stormtrooper-like.

I awoke in terror. Autistics are hypersensitive to this kind of noise and behaviors, especially being woken suddenly and loudly; it puts us into meltdown mode, which is an involuntary autonomic nervous system response to extreme sensory, emotional, or cognitive overload. Triggered when environmental demands exceed processing capacity, the autonomic nervous system shifts into an intense fight-or-flight state, temporarily overriding executive function and rational control.

Deputy Klix is one of the deputies who tried to get me committed in 2021. Her MO is to show up, as she did yesterday, with a meek, cowed, too-stupid-to-see-the-forest-for-the-trees social worker stooge in tow -- under the duplicitous guise of an unnecessary "wellness check" to ignorantly slap labels on people and deprive them of their freedom. (Until I was formally diagnosed as autistic, this kind of moron regularly slapped different bogus psychiatric labels on me, none of them rooted in reality. If anyone is insane here, it's Klix.)

Did you know Deputy Klix's MO is a common tactic in Russia, to stifle/imprison dissidents?

"Slava" Gluzman, the psychiatrist, was arrested by Soviet authorities in Kyiv in 1972 and sentenced to seven years of hard labor and three years of exile in Siberia for the crime of speaking truth to power. Specifically, Gluzman called out the Soviet practice of using bogus psychiatric diagnoses to imprison domestic critics who dared to criticize the system, as if opposition to Communist dictatorship was a mental disorder.

Gluzman's life was a study in courage, never more so than near the end of it. In 2022 invading Russian soldiers came within about five miles of Gluzman's modest apartment in suburban Kyiv. One of his friends, Robert van Voren, tried to urge him to flee: "I called him, and he picked up," Mr. van Voren recalled. "I hadn't even opened my mouth when he said: 'I know why you're calling. If you ask me once that I need to leave this flat, I will never pick up again. This is my freedom. This is my home.'"

After I complained in 2022 about Klix's corruption to the prosecuting attorney, she waited a few months to get her cruel revenge (being autistic, I've been mobbed and bullied my whole life, but this one took the cake and still wakes me up screaming from PTSD). She assembled at the Jail with other officers I'd filed corruption complaints against (Larson, Thompson, Rathbun) and they all laughed loudly and pointed at me while they broke personal space and took personal cell phone pictures of me to forward to their fellow law enforcement and friends as I was being booked, after being falsely arrested for defending myself against Reuben Sanchez's second attempt to kill me.

I was shaking so hard yesterday at unexpectedly seeing this profoundly evil, nightmare of a woman on my property and having two large cruisers park conspicuously in the street that I had trouble staying standing. I didn't know the human body could shake that hard.

If you want to see the trauma they put me through -- again -- request the body-cam footage on https://www.whatcomcounty.us/2267/Records-Requests with Jennifer Dubrow, Deputy Klix and Deputy Mellema on 10/20/2026 from 11:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. (See below.)

NOTE: WCSO informed me on 10/21/2026 that they cannot produce this body-cam footage until 4/2/2027.

After they left, I threw up four times and am still shaking and unable to eat.

And why they had to ask over and over if I'm the one making Reuben Sanchez relentlessly try to kill me and to daily harass me and trespass on my land is beyond me. I kept telling them I don't leave my house -- and haven't in over 5 years since he and his mob started preying on me daily and 24/7 -- except to grocery shop or feed the birds. I also don't do daily walks in the neighborhood anymore (and haven't for many years) because every time I step foot on the roads I own in my neighborhood, Reuben Sanchez either attacks without warning or yells, "It's my road," and tries to kill me with his large, loaded utility van. (Believe me, a 68-year-old outrunning at breakneck speed, on dark, wet, deserted, narrow roads, a 50-year-old criminal is no small feat. And then he shows up the next day and taunts me with the fact WCSO didn't do anything about it. Or arrested me instead of him and promptly lost the video.) The ONLY time he's ever arrested is when he threatens to or tries to kill a man, but never women. (See QUOTES above.)

Do you people sit around and brainstorm how to torment autistic, elderly people you've wronged for over 5 years? Or how to make sure a criminal keeps relentlessly preying on them and repeatedly avoiding arrest? Or does it just come naturally?

I thought you were going to be different, Sheriff Tanksley but, very disappointingly, you're just a younger clone of ex-Sheriff Bill Elfo.

Below is a repeat of the CORRUPTION UNDER BILL ELFO excerpt I've repeatedly sent to the Whatcom County Council, Sheriff, Executive, and Glenhaven Lakes Community (GLC) attorneys. Maybe if I send it enough times, you'll actually consider doing something about the unrelenting crimes, by both Reuben Sanchez, et al., WCSO, and GLC.

(1) refusing for over 5 years to honestly and ethically investigate and arrest criminals in Glenhaven Lakes Community (including the two teenagers who shot out Ms. Crouter's large glass patio door, with her inside and with their mother absent, who knew they were shooting toward neighbors' houses without basic gun safety training (why don't you offer classes in gun safety training in GLC; there's certainly enough guns here to warrant it); allowing Reuben Sanchez's and deputies' and others' many, many lies (he also loves to play the race card, even when it's absolutely irrelevant -- I don't have an intolerant cell in my body, having lived overseas for many years, including in India, Japan, and Argentina), which were compounded by corrupt deputies omitting body-cam confessions and critical facts from written reports (I have proof of all these, including body-cam footage compared, word by word, to written reports)

(2) assigning a full-time deputy (Thompson) to a neighborhood who regularly favors the criminals and stacks the deck against victims with lies and omissions and favoritism (I also have recordings of Thompson admitting to this and all the reports where he lied); deputies assigned to a neighborhood are obligated to act without bias or favoritism, no matter how much criminals suck up to them and shower them with empty flattery; if they can't be neutral, they shouldn't be neighborhood deputies

(3) allowing detectives to completely omit the alleged perpetrator's account of events (I never pointed my handgun at anyone's head, even after they pulled onto my ROW, five feet in front of my no-trespassing sign, and put a long, deep trench in the dirt, as Reuben Sanchez and his mob had been doing for years to harass me; they were strangers to me, could just as easily have parked on their own property across the street, and the gun was simply held at my side while I stood on my own property during the entire conversation, in case they were violent like Reuben Sanchez)

(4) parading me in the Bellingham Jail in regular tours for the ex-con, his mob, the GLC people who had been supporting him, and current HR staff (these Jail tours are normally very rare and aren't comprised of the criminals who landed inmates there or your neighbors or HR staff I worked with for 11 years at Whatcom County before filing multiple corruption complaints against the HR manager, Karen Goens, such as illegally accessing extremely sensitive and confidential employee mental health/treatment data via our third-party insurer's manager

(5) assembling a LOT more officers than usual at my booking, including all the ones I'd filed corruption complaints against and have recordings of their lies and corruption -- such as Thompson, Rathbun, Larson, Klix -- who crowded very closely around me (autistics are very sensitive to crowds and noise and personal space being broken, and I quickly became very hot and stressed and ill), laughing and pointing and taking pictures with their personal cell phones and sending them to deputies and others (I know there were a LOT more present than usual that day because I spent months in a cell right off the booking area, starving myself to death by losing 25 pounds in 25 days, and never saw more than a few officers during bookings, and none of them were laughing and pointing and sending pictures from their personal cell phones to their friends) -- except for one, your corrections officers were consistently honorable and compassionate and ethical -- give those folks a raise -- and may tell you the truth about this incident if you cared to do your job and asked

(6) buying up all the land around the proposed new jail, like I've heard Bill Elfo has done (are you his partners in corruption?), and is now waiting to benefit from his ill-gotten gains and absence of soul

Any human being who would do any of this to another human being is completely bereft of ethics and integrity and humanity and feeling. I have one word for you: Karma.

You inherited a dirty, dirty house with no honor, Sheriff Tanksley. I had hoped you wouldn't just turn off the lights in response and bury your head in the sand some more, because there is absolutely no excuse for any of you to behave this way. Even if you're MAGA and have no shame. (I can generously categorize the teenager's mother, who gleefully led the mob with her pitchfork and torch held high, and who lied, again and again and again about her sons' criminal behavior, as a "soccer mom" or "cheerleader mom." Enough said.)

Shame on you all. Jen

What was I trying to escape from? Well, that lonely kid. I survived my loneliness. I survived those bullies. Not that I blame them, God bless them all, even the teachers who beat me about. I'm not a victim. If people choose to wallow, OK, go ahead, but you're still going to die.

I'm not a cold fish. I have lots of feelings. They're deep inside me. But I don't get attached to sentimentality. In this business with actors who I admire and I've worked with, I form no attachment. I am remote. I am a loner. I've never been able to shake that. I have acquaintances — friends, if you want to call it that. I don't have any close friends. I'm a little distant. A little suspicious, I suppose.

The only meaning I can put to my life is that everything I sought and yearned for found me. I didn't find it. It came to me.

10/22/2026 Email Sent to Whatcom County Council, Sheriff, Executive, and Glenhaven Lakes Community

Dear Sheriff Tanksley and Executive Sidhu Singh:

My no-trespassing sign was intact and in place today. Many thanks.

I eat very healthy and keep very good care of myself, so except for minor aches and pains, I haven't had any bad headaches in many years.

Today, however, after my massive, prolonged meltdown and shaking so violent I could barely stay upright, triggered by Klix's unexpected and uncommunicated visit, I've had a massive headache all day long, beyond migraine force, that pain-killers won't touch. And an overall, deep sick-body feeling. (This for someone who, at age 72, hasn't had a cold or the flu [except for a low fever for about an hour with COVID], since 2007 because of how I eat and exercise and care for myself.)

(BTW, WCSO won't release the body-cam footage of Klix's visit until 4/2/2027, so I'll have my attorney get it.)

When I was in the soul-killing work of HR (I'm retired, self-employed, and recovering HR now, thank God), I was struck, again and again, by how innately cruel and unkind the people in that field of work are, almost to a person. But then, like calls to like, doesn't it?

I was also struck, sitting across the table from county employees about to sign off on massive workers' comp settlements, how many of them expressed sadness that not a single person they'd worked with for years -- from management to line staff -- had contacted them after they were injured or fell ill, just to say "hi" or express empathy.

Many said, "I wouldn't have sued for compensation or left the county if a single person had contacted me while I was out." Nothing says, "You're just another cog in the wheel" like silence.

The county -- and, I'm sure, many companies across America -- have paid out enormous amounts of money for lack of a single, kind word and a smidgeon of empathy.

Our society, built on a foundation of greed and hate and enrichment from other people's misfortunes and misery (I once heard Bill Elfo gleefully state that by 2050, a third of Americans will be imprisoned: see 13th on Netflix), is very sick.

WCSO can't be bothered to investigate or repair any of the miseries it inflicts over 5 years (in my case) or 10 years (in Samantha Robinson's case) on other humans. But it can be bothered to send its Klixes and the deputies who tormented Samantha for 10 years to compound miseries and grind their fingers into wounds.

Do you know that the day Klix was laughing and pointing and taking personal cell phone pictures to send to her law enforcement buddies, she came running into the Jail's restroom about 5 minutes after I arrived, emerged from the restroom, and stood there behind the booking officer staring directly at me, laughing, with an ugly, vicious look on her face. Evil incarnate and easy, petty revenge for the corruption complaints I'd filed against her, Bill Elfo, and Thompson, Rathbun, Larson, etc.

I pity people like them, who are so unhappy and cruel in their own lives that they become self-created monsters.

Again, I have one word for you all: Karma.

Or, if you prefer, five words: What goes around, comes around.

QUOTE BY ADAM DARIENZO (friend of REUBEN SANCHEZ's ex-wife) to SWPD OFFICER

ADAM advises he answered calls [from REUBEN SANCHEZ] a few of the times to try and reason with him and explain he had the wrong idea. He stated he could not get a word in because REUBEN SANCHEZ kept yelling and screaming and threatening him and then would hang up and then call back, which went on and on.

REUBEN SANCHEZ then left several messages telling him to change his phone number, or he would continue calling and harassing him for the rest of his life. REUBEN SANCHEZ also stated ADAM was one of three people he was bugging and that he wouldn't stop.

Just to clarify: These quotations are in no way, shape, or form threats by Jennifer Dubrow to kill Reuben Sanchez.

LUDWIG, Season 2, Episode 2: Ludwig (autistic detective) investigates the murder of the bride's ex-boyfriend (Owen), who was stabbed and killed in the middle of the wedding ceilidh.

HUSBAND/SUSPECT: Me and Sienna, we met a couple of years after she and Owen broke up. I certainly knew him then, though. He just never stopped. Till this very day, he never stopped (harassing and stalking).

MOTHER OF BRIDE/SUSPECT: Eight years. (Drunkenly laughing.) Well, he's stopped now!

HUSBAND/SUSPECT: Babes, you're not helping. Detective, the man was obsessed and dangerous.
Not that any of your lot ever agreed.

LUDWIG/DETECTIVE: You reported him?

FATHER OF BRIDE/SUSPECT: (Chuckles drily.) All of us have at one stage or another. Check your records.
There must be, what, dozens of incidents all filed away under "ignore."

And he was told, specifically by me, that if he showed his face here today, it would be the last thing he ever does. Which it was.

LUDWIG/DETECTIVE: Did YOU do it?

FATHER OF BRIDE/SUSPECT: No. Look, I just don't see how anybody here could've done it, and not one of us notice.

LUDWIG/DETECTIVE: Yes! Thank you! Isn't it frustrating?

FATHER OF BRIDE/SUSPECT: Well, whoever it was, I'd like to shake their hand.

LUDWIG/DETECTIVE: Chances are, you already have.

LUDWIG ASSISTANT: So it's all true, sir.
The bride, the groom, the best man, the parents, they all put in reports on Owen over the years.
All filed. They were followed up, but no charges were ever made.

LUDWIG/DETECTIVE: Well, that's going to look bad, isn't it?
Multiple warnings about a dangerous individual that eventually results in murder?

LUDWIG ASSISTANT: Yes, but it resulted in the death of the dangerous individual, so…

LUDWIG/DETECTIVE: Yeah, suppose that does take the edge off a bit.

BRIDE/SUSPECT: Plus, they all fall into that grey area, with him just turning up places and being visible.

LUDWIG ASSISTANT: Why? What was the point?

LUDWIG/DETECTIVE: That WAS the point.
He needed her to know that he would never NOT be in her life.
Psychological torture.

They're back (see attached photos). You can file this under "ignore," as usual.

What we're seeing, though, is one of the most powerful, one of the richest women in the world [Kim Kardashian], unable to get her ex to stop texting her, to stop chasing after her, to stop harassing her. Just think about that for a moment. Think about how powerful she is, and she can't get that to happen.

I grew up my whole life in an abusive household, right? One of the things I found most interesting was how often people told my mom she was overreacting. What I found interesting was how many times people told my mom to calm down, people told my family to calm down – everyone. You know?

And everyone had different reasons. I remember once we went to the police station, and they said to my mom, "Oh, but did you talk back? Is that why you're here? Oh, but what did you say to him?"

It's all these questions. All these questions. And I remember seeing this as a child, by the way. You see this as a child, you know? And you see a world where women are questioned for what is happening to them, as opposed to people questioning what is happening to them.

And for years, people said this shit. "This happens; that happens," everyone – police, some family, strangers. Whatever it was. Whatever it was.

And I'll never forget one day, I got a call from my brother saying, "Hey, Mom has just been shot in the head."

You see it in all these stories where people say, "We saw it, but we didn't..." Whether it's the people around them [harassers/stalkers], whether it's us as society, condoning or not condoning. But just as a society, we have to ask ourselves questions: Do we wish to stand by and watch a car crash, when we thought we saw it coming?

My name is Jennifer Dubrow. I'm the 72-year-old retired, self-employed, autistic woman you slandered and defamed in 2022 on Bill Elfo's say-so, with no investigation of the facts or opportunity for rebuttal from me. (See attachments.)

I don't know if you were also complicit in his cruel and petty vengeance for my corruption complaints against him and a few deputies. (See attachments.) I hope not. That's a hell I wouldn't wish on my worst enemy.

I think you owe me the opportunity to tell my side of the story, since you destroyed my local reputation and my relationship with my family. (I was 45 years in the regular workplace, including in Whatcom County HR for 11 years; the criminal who I was falsely arrested for stopping his second attempt to kill me has seldom worked in his 55-year-old life (he's a drug dealer), is known for threatening to kill ex-wives, their children, me, customers, and others, and has served time for drug possession, manufacturing, and distribution in Skagit County.) (See attachments.)

You probably won't run this story because the Bellingham Herald isn't known for its balanced reporting.

And I'm sure destroying my life and reputation and relationships are a small price to pay for you to sleep well at night. (To put an autistic in a small, enclosed, dirty space, with correction officers leering at me while I'm going to the bathroom, with no opportunity for exercise or sunlight, and with 24/7 non-stop screaming by other inmates is a fate I wouldn't wish on anyone.)

The only saving grace for me is I'm one of the best proofreaders in the nation, and my court reporter clients are all over the country, so wouldn't have read your severely distorted/backwards story or seen my huge booking picture on the front page. (I wonder how many other inmates you do that to, without Bill Elfo in the background, pulling your strings.)

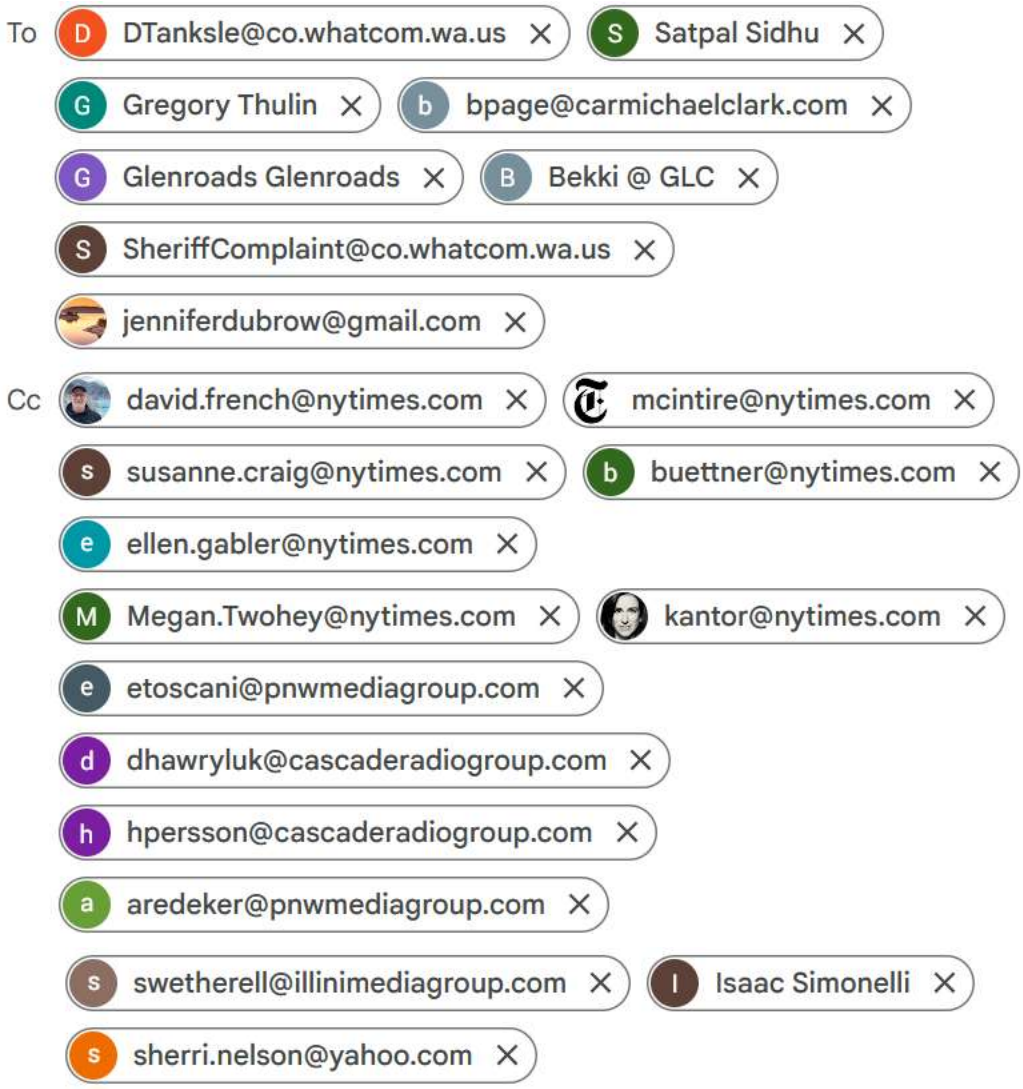

I'll be coming at the County and GLC soon, with both barrels blazing. And you'll be duly subpoenaed.

I am the loving type. But not the forgiving type.

Dear Sheriff Tanksley and Executive Sidhu Singh:

They're back (see attached photos). You can file this under "ignore," as usual.

I'm not going to continue reporting these daily crimes, because it prevents me from giving my court reporter clients my full attention and excellence, and you just ignore the reports, anyway.

Plus, I don't expect to survive your over-5-year campaign of 24/7 vicious crimes, corruption, harassment, false arrests, losing 25 pounds in 25 days, and the list goes on and on.

Just a tidbit: Autistic women have a 71 percent higher risk of strokes and heart attacks, which after Deputy Klix's deliberately and maliciously caused meltdown on 10/20 -- causing full-body shaking so bad I could barely stay on my feet -- is probably closer to 90-100 percent now.

I still have a crushing headache and feel ill, five days after that profoundly evil, nightmare of a woman unexpectedly showed up at my house -- my sanctuary from all of you -- with another deputy and a worthless, ignorant social worker in tow, after I'd told WCSO my attorney would contact them and that I didn't want to meet.

"Slava" Gluzman, the psychiatrist, was arrested by Soviet authorities in Kyiv in 1972 and sentenced to seven years of hard labor and three years of exile in Siberia for the crime of speaking truth to power. SLAVA GLUZMAN

You naturally cruel and corrupt County leadership and law enforcement and GLC boards and attorneys have had your fun. To Reuben Sanchez, for what you did to those poor animals, I wish you ten-fold the pain and suffering you've caused in your worthless life.

To the investigative reporters cc'd on this email (except The Bellingham Herald ones who abdicated their journalistic integrity in 2022), everything referred to in it is contained in more detail in the attached documents. (Megan Twohey and Jodi Kantor, you may want to see the section/quote by Giselle Pelicot that explains why entire law enforcement units would support, encourage, and regularly participate in and condone Reuben Sanchez's many crimes against women. And with him, it was law enforcement in both Skagit and Whatcom counties for over more than 20 years.)

I apologize for jumping the gun on sending you the attached documents in the same email to the perpetrators, but I'll draw your attention back to the section where I don't expect to survive this ordeal. Either because Reuben Sanchez, et al. shoots a bullet through a window (which happens in our neighborhood) or my 72-year-old, autistic body cannot withstand the recent meltdown/shaking or the exhaustion and stress from this 24/7, 5-year ordeal is just too much. I'm very, very tired.

My website -- glenhavensins.com -- also contains evidence over the 5 years, including Deputy Klix's attempt to do the same thing in 2022, which I sent to Eric Richey and will now send to the new prosecuting attorney, so he can ignore it like Mr. Richey did. (He's running for office now, but this is a blue state, so I doubt he'll lose.)

Let me know if you want me to turn the website back on so you can explore at your leisure.

Last, for any who care about your health and want to live a long, quality life, also attached is the smoothie recipe I developed after treating for breast cancer in 2007. (It's kept me cancer-free and completely free of colds and flus (except for a slight fever for about an hour with COVID) for almost 20 years. (This health effect kicks in after about a month of drinking it daily. It's also benefited every other part of my body/immune system, including my eyesight. And it's deliciously berry-flavored with a gorgeous, appetizing burgundy color.)

Last, for you fellow animal lovers, I recently discovered feeding your companions Great Chops can save them teeth-cleaning trips to the vet.

Take care,

It is lamentable that, to be a good patriot, one must become the enemy of the rest of mankind.

Men use thought only as authority for their injustice, and employ speech only to conceal their thoughts.

The world embarrasses me, and I cannot dream that this watch exists and has no watchmaker.

Wherever my travels may lead, Paradise is where I am.

Life is thickly sown with thorns, and I know no other remedy than to pass quickly through them.

The longer we dwell on our misfortunes, the greater is their power to harm us.

I die adoring God, loving my friends, not hating my enemies, and detesting superstition.
VOLTAIRE

A man and his dog were walking along a road. The man was enjoying the scenery, when it suddenly occurred to him that he was dead. He remembered dying, and that the dog walking beside him had been dead for years. He wondered where the road was leading them.

After a while, they came to a high, white stone wall along one side of the road. It looked like fine marble. At the top of the long hill, it was broken by a tall arch that glowed in the sunlight.

Soon he was standing before a magnificent gate in the arch that looked like mother-of-pearl, and the street that led to the gate looked like pure gold. He and the dog walked toward the gate, and as he got closer, he saw a man at the desk to one side.

He called out, "Excuse me, where are we?" "This is Heaven, sir," the man answered.

"Wow! Would you happen to have some water?" the man asked.

"Of course, sir. Come right in and I'll have some ice water brought right up." The man gestured, and the gate began to open. "Can my friend," said the man, gesturing toward his dog, "come in too?"

"I'm sorry, sir, but we don't accept pets."

The man thought for a moment and then turned back toward the road and continued the way he had been going with his dog.

After another long walk, and at the top of another long hill, he came to a dirt road which led through a farm gate that looked as if it had never been closed. There was no fence. As he approached the gate, he saw a man inside, leaning against a tree and reading a book.

"Excuse me!" he called to the reader. "Do you have any water?"

"Yeah, sure. There's a pump over there." The man pointed to a place that couldn't be seen from outside the gate. "Come on in."

"How about my friend here?" the traveler gestured to the dog.

"There should be a bowl by the pump."

They went through the gate and, sure enough, there was an old-fashioned hand pump with a bowl beside it. The traveler filled the bowl and gave some to the dog, then took a long drink himself from the faucet. When they were full, he and the dog walked back toward the man who was standing by the tree waiting for them.

"What do you call this place?" the traveler asked.

“This is Heaven,” was the answer.

“Well, that’s confusing,” the traveler said. “The man down the road said that was Heaven too.”

“Oh, you mean the place with the gold streets and pearly gates? Nope. That’s Hell.”

“Doesn’t it make you mad they use your name like that?”

“No. I can see how you might think so, but we’re just happy they screen out the folks who’d abandon their best friends.”
